Tips

Tips for Taking Your Dog Boating

If you enjoy boating, there's no reason not to take your best friend with you. After all, dogs love going places with their owners.

Most dogs enjoy water, they are instinctive swimmers and very few dogs are afraid of the water (except during bath time!). Nothing beats a warm summer day out on a boat with the companionship of your dog. Dogs are an important part of most families and a holiday just isn't a holiday if you leave your first mate at home. Safety is important on a boat and it is especially important if you take your dog along with you. There are a few simple things you can do to make sure your day out on sea (or the lake) doesn't turn into a scene from Titanic.

Let's start with the basics for what you need to know when taking your dog boating:

- Invest in a canine life jacket.
- Do not encourage your dog to drink water from the lake or sea.
- Consider purchasing and applying sunscreen for your dog.
- Have a plan in place when your dog needs to relieve himself or herself.

Life Jackets for Dogs

How do you choose a life jacket for Fido?

Here are a few things to consider:

- Fit: Make sure the life jacket fits securely. It's best to check the fit before you buy.
- Lifting handles: To make retrieving your pet safer and easier.
- Comfort: Check to see where straps and buckles fall to make sure they won't cause your pet any discomfort.
- Color: Choose a bright color to make it easier to spot your dog in the water.

What Do Our Ratings Mean?

POOR: day basically means the fish will either steal all your bait or will not even touch your line.

FAIR: day means that you may catch one or two fish, but you will have to work hard to do so.

GOOD: day means that you will catch enough fish to feel gratified.

BEST: day means that you will catch something almost every time you cast your line in the water.

Breakfast Burrito

Ingredients:

- 4 ounces sausage ham or bacon, cut in small pieces
- 1/4 onion diced
- 1/4 green pepper diced or little bit of a spicy pepper, minced
- 1 tomato diced
- 2 eggs lightly beaten
- 2 large tortillas or 4 small tortillas (corn or flour)
- 1/4 cup shredded cheese
- 1/4 cup salsa

How to Make:

1. Sauté the meat, onion, pepper and tomatoes over medium-high heat until the meat is done
2. Add the eggs and cook to your preferred doneness. At the same time, heat a dry skillet over high heat. When hot, heat the tortillas one at a time by placing them in the skillet for about 15 seconds per side.
3. Place a tortilla on a plate, add half the egg mix, half the cheese, a bit of salsa and roll.

Bloody Mary w/ Horseradish & Smoked Paprika

Ingredients:

- 6-8 oz. organic tomato juice (bottled is much better than canned)
- 1 tsp. organic lemon juice, 1 tsp. organic lime juice, 1 organic lime wedge
- 2 dashes of Worcestershire sauce (or Bragg's Liquid Aminos for a vegan version)
- 1 Tbsp. pickle juice (or pickled jalapeno juice for more "kick")
- 1/4 tsp. Dijon mustard
- 2 dashes bottled hot sauce of your choice
- 1 pinch sea salt, 1 pinch freshly ground organic black pepper or organic pink pepper
- 2 tsp. Cyprus flake salt
- 2 tsp. organic celery salt
- 1 pinch organic smoked paprika
- 2 oz. vodka
- 10-20 drops organic fresh horseradish extract
- Celery stalk, green olives, or other garnishes of your choice (I like mine simple)

How to Make:

1. In a pitcher or quart jar, combine all tomato mixture ingredients and shake
2. On a flat dish, combine flake salt, celery salt, and smoked paprika.
3. Rub lime wedge around the rim of a chilled pint glass and dip rim in salt/paprika mixture.
4. Fill your glass halfway with ice and add tomato mixture
5. Add vodka and stir with a long-handled spoon & garnish as desired!
