Tips for Boating with Kids

Whether you're new to boating, new to kids, or you have a new crew of children coming onboard, knowing these 10 tips for boating with kids will surely come in handy. We had a slew of young boaters tell us what they needed to know – and what they needed us to know – before leaving the dock, and we made sure the important bases were covered.

1. Get me a comfortable life jacket that fits—those old blocky orange things are no fun at all.
2. Tell me the rules before we leave the dock. Make sure they know to keep both feet flat on the deck, not to lean over the rail, etc.
3. Help them stay safe from the sun. Putting on suntan lotion and drinking lots of water is a must!
4. Warn them about falling hatch covers. They pinch little toes and fingers, and are one of the most common causes of injuries for kids.
5. Keep them involved with running the boat. Kids like steering or holding lines, and even scrubbing the boat at the end of the day.
6. Be prepared for seasickness—some homeopathic remedies, like smelling peppermint, drinking ginger ale, wearing wrist bands, and going barefoot are things to try.

Tips for Boating with Kids Pt.2

Whether you're new to boating, new to kids, or you have a new crew of children coming onboard, knowing these 10 tips for boating with kids will surely come in handy. We had a slew of young boaters tell us what they needed to know – and what they needed us to know – before leaving the dock, and we made sure the important bases were covered.

7. Bring a change of clothes. When a child gets wet, they get cold a lot faster than an adult. So they need extra dry clothing onboard.
8. Show them how to hail the Coast Guard on the radio. If anything happens to you, they need to know how to ask for help!
9. Show them how to use the GPS.
10. If you're boating in saltwater, bring along some vinegar in case they get stung by a jellyfish!

Recreational Fishing

Maryland has a rich fishing and crabbing heritage and offers everything from trophy trout in mountain streams to highly migratory gamefish cutting through the Gulf Stream. Freshwater and saltwater opportunities abound for everyone from families and their children's first catch to the expert looking to hook up with a fish-of-a-lifetime or that fish species which has alluded them for years.

FishMaryland is a free, year-round tournament sponsored by the Maryland Department of Natural Resources Fishing and Boating Services, recreational fishing organizations, and generous donors across the state. It's purpose is to showcase Maryland as a great destination for sport fishing, with many fishing opportunities for Maryland's residents and visitors alike, and to help increase the number of youth and families participating in the sport of fishing.

FishMaryland includes three main components: Angler Awards, Invasive Species Awards, and Youth Fishing Club. There is also a Governor's Striped Bass Conservation Award. Visit FishMaryland for eligible species, official award centers and other information.

Anglers of all ages are encouraged to submit their stories and pictures about their experiences fishing in Maryland for inclusion in the department's Angler's Log and Youth Angler's Log. Check out some of the great photos we have received by visiting our Flickr Page.

3. Combine zucchini with eggs, Parmesan and half of mozzarella and cheddar cheeses.
4. Press into a greased 13x9-in. or 3-qt. baking dish. Bake 20 minutes.
5. Meanwhile, in a large saucepan, cook beef and onion over medium heat, crumbling beef, until meat is no longer pink; drain.
6. Add tomato sauce; spoon over zucchini mixture. Add remaining cheeses, red pepper.
7. Bake until heated through, about 20 minutes longer.
